

Elements of Philosophy and Theology in the Catholic Tradition

What is 'the good'?

What is 'human nature'?

Where do 'rights' come from?

Is it possible to know
'the truth'?

Explore your faith in the context of the Elements of Philosophy and Theology in the Catholic Tradition.

The St. Anthony of Padua Institute is pleased to present the second cycle of the Elements of Philosophy and Theology in the Catholic Tradition (EPTCT) course.

This course aims to provide a student with the fundamental elements necessary to become conversant in the profound riches of the Catholic tradition in its philosophy, and theology - and therefore to be equipped for work in the New Evangelization as called for by Pope John Paul II.

The course is ideal for students with little - or no - prior background in the study of philosophy or theology.

The course will begin in the Fall of 2009 and applications are due by Friday, July 31st. EPTCT classes will be held at St. Mary's Cathedral in San Francisco.

This course may be used as credit to partially fulfill the requirements for Master Catechist certification and renewal as well as Basic Catechist renewal in the Diocese of Oakland.
